

Blanton Family Papers, 1933-1985, n.d.

2003.037

1 box, 1 scrapbook, 8 oversized items

SE 1-C / A-5 (oversized items)

Materials collected and created by Joseph Edwin Blanton, 1933-1985, n.d. Correspondence, a manuscript, and a printer's proof for Interwoven by Sallie Reynolds Matthews. Oversized items are blueprints for the large stone markers placed on Lamshead, Stone Ranch and other historic sites in Shackelford County, most were discussed in Interwoven. Publications include Chimney Creek Ranch and 3 issues of Texas Historical Preservation News. Newspaper clippings range from the years 1962-1964 and 1982-1985. Written works of 2 narrative histories entitled "Smith's Station on the Butterfield Overland Mail Route" and "Chimney Creek Stage Stop", printed materials such as programs from exhibits, historical society meetings, concerts, and informative pamphlets, and a 34 page scrapbook with materials from the years 1933-1975 complete the collection.

Keywords:

Joseph Edwin Blanton, Interwoven, Shackelford County Historical Commission, Chimney Creek Stage Stop, Chimney Creek Ranch, Texas Historical Preservation News